Secretary Brown Breaks Tie, Election Board To Seek Writ

Secretary of State Ted W. Brown's tie-breaking vote Monday paved the way for the Pickaway County Board of Elections to petition the County Common Pleas Court for expenses to conduct county-wide registration next month.

Republican Brown sided with the two GOP members of the election board to break a split-party party lines on the question of whether to petition the court for registration expenses.

The local election board was forced to ask the court for a writ of mandamus for necessary and proper expenses when the County Commissioners refused, in effect, to allow $4,000 to the board to pay extra help and expenses of instituting county-wide voter registration.

Commissioner Wayne G. Hines moved the board meet the request of the election board, but the motion died for want of a second from either Charles E. Morris Jr. or Clyde E. Michel, both Democrats.

THE BOARD of Elections then deadlocked on a motion to file a mandamus action in County Common Pleas Court, asking the court to force the Commissioners to allot adequate expenses. Brown broke this tie in favor of petitioning the court.

Another hitch developed today

11 Sailors Die As Ships Collide

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Patrick Medeiros, bow lookout aboard the freshly refitted destroyer Collett, peered anxiously into fog as thick as cotton candy. His ship seemed to be gliding blindly through a cloud.

Suddenly Medeiros screamed into his microphone: "Ship dead ahead!"

An instant later the newly painted bow of the Collett smashed into the destroyer Ammen, a kamikaze-scarred veteran on its way to the boneyard.

Then Medeiros, 19, of Honolulu, heard the awesome sounds of disaster at sea—frantic shouts, the clanging of bells, death screams, the hiss of steam, and the rip and tear of steel.

Medeiros escaped with a bruised thigh, but 11 other Navy men died in the collision Tuesday. At least 20 others were hurt, but only six were hospitalized.

The Ammen, heading for San Diego and deactivation, had just unloaded her explosives at nearby Seal Beach. Otherwise both ships could have been blown out of the water.

The 376-foot Collett left her bow anchor embedded in the Ammen's twisted superstructure and carried off a crushed Ammen seaman in the fang-like wreckage of her own bow.

When the bow lookout first yelled, the Collett's skipper, Cmdr. A.T. Ford of St. Petersburg, Fla., shouted from the bridge: "All engines back full. Right full rudder."

Too late. The Collett, apparently in a turn, struck the Ammen's port side below the waterline just astern of amidships, then slid up and smashed into the superstructure. Those killed were all aboard the Ammen and had been working in two offices above deck.

"Stop engines," ordered Cmdr. Zaven Mukhalian, captain of the Ammen.

The damage control party quickly went below and secured watertight doors. The Ammen looked sadder than when a Japanese suicide plane crashed into her during the Battle of Okinawa in 1945. She listed 11 degrees to port but did not sink.

Why did the ships collide? Both captains said they had their radar turned on. The Ammen's skipper said he had been tracking the Collett for 20 minutes before the crash. They refused to go into details of the speed of their ships or their maneuvers, pending an official Navy inquiry.

Donors Needed For Tomorrow

Mrs. Roloff Wolford, executive secretary of the local Red Cross office stated at noon today that there are only 10 donors scheduled for the Bloodmobile visit tomorrow. The quota is 200 donors.

This is far below the usual report from recruiters received on the day prior to the Bloodmobile visit.

Several of the large plants have yet to turn in their lists, but indications are that unless more donors volunteer today and tomorrow the visit will fall far below the quota.

Those able to give blood this time are urged to contact the local Red Cross office at GR 4-5736 or GR 4-3447.

Those who do not have appointments will be processed quickly if they will stop in at the First Methodist Church from 11 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. tomorrow.

Anti-Alcohol Fight To Be Waged in France

PARIS (AP)—The French National Assembly voted the government power Tuesday to legislate by decree in an effort to control alcoholism. The measure is aimed mainly at giving the Cabinet power in the next four months to limit private distilling of alcohol. The vote was 290-163. The Senate still must give its approval.

Premier Michel Debre told the deputies: "Alcohol kills more people than tuberculosis and twice as many as the automobile."

Pair Kidnaps Village Deputy After Holdup

Granville Officer Tells of Harrowing Brush with Death

NEWARK, Ohio (AP) — State Highway Patrolmen and officers of two counties fanned out over the western Licking County-eastern Franklin County area today—in a search for a pair of holdup men who early today kidnaped a village officer.

The abducted man, Granville Deputy Curt Kuhn, was released after a harrowing brush with death.

Sought are two men believed in their late 20s—one mustached, the other cross-eyed. They held up a Newark tavern just before the 2:30 a. m. closing time today. They may be the same men who last weekend held up two taverns in Stark County, officers believe.

The men in the weekend incidents were in the company of an "attractive" blonde woman with a boy about three years old.

One of the desperadoes fired four shots into the floor at the tavern in Newark in the holdup in which the manager and about six patrons were forced into a restroom while the thieves emptied the cash register of about $200.

The pair, Licking County officers related, then drove off west on Ohio 16 to Granville, where their car banged into a gasoline pump at a filling station. They abandoned the auto, and a short time later overpowered Deputy Kuhn.

They wrested his gun from him, Kuhn told investigators, forced him into his police cruiser and drove off in it on Ohio 16 in the direction of Columbus, farther west.

About a mile out of Granville, they told Kuhn out. One of the men wanted to kill him, he recounted, but was at length talked out of it by his partner. But Kuhn was forced to crawl along the highway on his hands and knees and was nearly run down as the men got back in his cruiser and drove toward him. He managed to jump off the road, he said.

Kuhn was taken to Newark Hospital in a state of shock after officers found him. He was admitted and is reported in fair condition.

The Granville police cruiser was discovered abandoned on a Licking County road east of Pataaskala, which is 10 miles west of Granville, by Columbus police who joined in the manhunt.

The area around the spot where the car was found was quickly blocked off by an estimated 50 officers. Two airplanes of the Highway Patrol, some 35 cruisers and a mounted Franklin County sheriff's posse were being deployed this morning.

Officers were told that the two men who held up the tavern in Newark spent Monday evening there, in the company of a woman. Then they spent Tuesday night at the same cafe, drinking and playing shuffleboard and behaving quietly or congenially—until the bartender told the customers it was five minutes until closing time.

This time the woman wasn't with them, but it is thought she might have been in the car outside waiting.

At the announcement closing time was coming up, one of the men whipped out a gun, fired it into the floor, and herded everyone into the restroom. One then emptied the till.

A total of $495 was taken in holdups of the two Stark County taverns — Leslie's at Ohio 44 and U.S. 62, and Homer's on U.S. 30 between Massillon and Canton.

Stark County sheriff's deputies said those robberies were done by a short man with a mustache, a cross-eyed man, and a young, pretty blonde who carried a child of about three.

Rock To Joust Nixon Windmill

Little Hope Is Held For Success of Draft

CHICAGO (AP) — Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's strategists aimed a well-heeled blitz today at the nearly impregnable wall Vice President Richard M. Nixon has built around the GOP presidential nomination.

A Rockefeller strategist said the decision had been made to place the New York governor's name in nomination before the Republican National Convention which opens Monday.

This move was reportedly approved by Rockefeller personally in a conference with his leaders which preceded a personal appearance before the party's platform committee Tuesday.

The governor has said he is available for a draft but doesn't expect one to materialize.

The objective of the move appeared to be an attempted convention stampede such as supporters of Adlai E. Stevenson tried to engineer at the L.O.S. Angeles Democratic National Convention. Its chance for success seemed little greater than the abortive Stevenson push.

But Rockefeller's most enthusiastic supporters were talking in terms of collecting upwards of 300 votes on the first ballot. This claim had Nixon's backers shaking their heads in incredulous amazement.

Leonard W. Hall Nixon's campaign manager without title, said that as a result of primary, convention and individual action around 1,100 of 1,331 delegate votes stand publicly committed to Nixon in one way or another.

No one, outside of a handful of Rockefeller enthusiasts could fathom the mathematics by which this Nixon total could be reduced below the 666 needed for the nomination by even the most vigorous sort of draft operation.

Rockefeller might command most of New York's 96 votes in a showdown, but where others would come from remained a puzzle.

GOP Is Urged To Back End to Farm Controls

Platform Committee Appears Headed for Middle-of-Road Path

CHICAGO (AP)—A farm leader urged the Republican party today to give voters a clear choice between farm controls and freedom from such curbs.

President Charles D. Schuman of the American Farm Bureau Federation made this recommendation to the Republican Platform Committee in a statement advocating freedom from controls.

Schuman, who described himself as a registered Democrat, said he was disappointed with the farm plank adopted by his party at Los Angeles last week. He said that plank appeared to lay out a blueprint for greater restrictions on agriculture.

Policies advocated by Schuman were in line with those being followed by the Eisenhower administration.

Schuman said government programs attempting to fix farm prices and to control production have failed.

But John A. Baker, director of legislative services for the National Farmers Union, urged the Republicans to go on record for tighter production controls to eliminate surpluses. He also backed higher price supports than favored by the administration and the Farm Bureau.

The 103-member Resolutions Committee heard speeches by nine political, industrial, economic, and scientific leaders Tuesday. It gave its most enthusiastic reception to those who criticized what they called a trend toward a welfare state. It cheered those who called for a holdout cuthack in government participation in the economic life of the nation.

The committee will hear other spokesmen today, advocating in some cases more federal spending and in others less federal activity in the economic and public welfare fields.

The committee's reactions Tuesday were in sharp contrast to the way its counterpart at the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles greeted its witnesses. The Democrats warmly applauded those urging a bolder government role in the nation's life, and this was reflected in their platform.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona was the darling of the day for the Republican committee members. He is perhaps the party's bitterest critic of government spending and related programs. His introduction drew a standing ovation that included many wild cheers. When he finished he was given another ovation.

Navy Launches Polaris from Cruising Sub

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Navy, for the first time, launched a Polaris missile from a submerged submarine today.

The nuclear-powered George Washington fired the missile as she cruised underwater about 30 miles off Cape Canaveral.

The stubby rocket broke through the waves, ignited an instant later and streaked toward its destination, more than 1,100 miles down the Atlantic missile range.

A successful flight would move the United States a step nearer to possessing one of the most powerful and elusive war deterrent systems devised so far.

It would be another significant advance in a field of missilery in which this nation is believed to hold a big edge over the Soviet Union.

Mavericks To Get Special Organization To Back Jack

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy today announced appointment of a new campaign organization designed to attract independents, Republicans, and Democrats who want to work apart from the regular Democratic party organization.

Pierre Salinger, Kennedy's secretary said the organization "could very well" provide a place for such groups as the New York Democratic faction led by former Sen. Herbert H. Lehman.

Lehman is at odds with the New York organization.

Salinger, as Kennedy's official spokesman, told a news conference that organization will be known as Citizens-for-Kennedy, and will be headed by Byron White, 43, the former All-American halfback at the University of Colorado.

White's title will be national chairman; his assignment to establish units in every state. Salinger spoke as a group Kennedy campaign strategists was assembling at the senator's vacation home for a top level meeting.

This forced Kennedy to cut into his "complete rest" vacation.

The conference will cover such subjects as when and where to launch his election campaign and a coast-to-coast drive to register every potential voter with Democratic leanings.

Kennedy announced Tuesday night the appointment of Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. (D-N.J.) as director of the National Registration Committee.

Chief among the strategy group, of course, is Kennedy's campaign manager brother Robert, already on the scene. He directed the months-long drive through the presidential primaries which brought Kennedy to Los Angeles as the front runner and made him first-ballot winner of the Democratic nomination.

With them will be James Rowe, a Washington lawyer who has once and a time to President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Hospital Insurance Aide Objects to Question Session

CINCINNATI (AP)—The attorney for Hospital Care Corp. today formally objected to all questions asked witnesses in a hearing before the Ohio Insurance Department for the right to increase rates 28 per cent in southwestern Ohio.

Walter T. Tarr, the attorney told Edward A. Stowell, superintendent of the state insurance department as the meeting began: "We do not consider it lawful or proper at this hearing to go into the question of efficiency or economy of hospital operation."

He told Stowell and Sheldon Greene, chief investigator for the state insurance department, that Hospital Care Corp. did not regard the hearings as an investigation into amounts charged by hospitals to their patients.

"We know of no statutes which gives the department of insurance the authority to conduct such an investigation," he said. Then he added that "neither we nor the hospitals have anything to hide."

Stowell told the meeting that it "is not a trial."

"It is purely a public hearing and we hope that this inquiry will permit us to become better acquainted with the problem of hospital facilities in this area."

But, he added, "anytime a community is asked to spend an additional ten million dollars, certainly that is a time to look into the matter."

Earl H. Kammer, executive director of Hospital Care, which operates in 15 counties, then began presenting reasons he said made it necessary to increase the costs to individuals, and family groups.

Kammer said Hospital Care "welcomes the opportunity which this public hearing presents for us

U.N. Action Said Failure

Red China Included In 'Welcome' Plea

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Cabinet of the Congo government voted today to ask the Soviet Union to send in troops with the purpose of keeping order and bringing about evacuation of all Belgian troops.

Actual delivery of the request apparently was being delayed pending further discussions in the United Nations tonight.

The appeal also invited troops from "any other country to the Afro-Asian plan," presumably the nations that attended the Bandung conference in Indonesia in 1955. That would include Red China.

Making the announcement, at a news conference immediately after the Cabinet meeting, Premier Patrice Lumumba said the mission of these troops would be:

1. To effect the peaceful evacuation of Belgian soldiers from the Congo.

2. Assist in maintaining order in the country in conformity with government's decisions.

3. Prevent all foreign aggression.

In Washington, the first reaction of officials to Lumumba's step was surprise and shock.

Top officials of the State Department hurriedly convened to review the new situation and refused immediate comment.

The communique said the Cabinet decision was made because the Belgian government refused to withdraw its troops from the Congo in conformity with the decisions of the United Nations Security Council and of the Congo government. It also said the U.N. troops in the country had failed to effect the withdrawal of the Belgians.

The Belgians agreed to a U.N. command request to pull out of Leopoldville. They already have begun withdrawing.

Ike's Surplus To Be Hailed At GOP Parley

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Eisenhower today announced a $1,100,000,000 budget surplus for the fiscal year which ended June 30.

The surplus is more than five times as large as the figure the President predicted last January. "This demonstration of fiscal responsibility not only reinforces economic strength here at home, but reaffirms to the world that the United States intends to run its financial affairs on a sound basis," Eisenhower said in a statement at the summer White House.

The announcement, coming just a few days in advance of the opening of the GOP National Convention, is sure to be seized on with delight by Republicans in their campaign to retain the presidency and capture control of Congress.

This was the Eisenhower administration's third budget surplus in seven years.

In Washington it was reported that unexpected gains in the personal income of Americans, boosting federal individual income tax collections, contributed most of the revenue increase.

Corporation taxes yielded less handsomely, owing to the decline in business profits caused by the long steel strike last summer and fall. But even the profit figure was better than many had expected six months ago. At that time some officials feared the fiscal year would wind up in red ink.

4th Appellate Court Upholds Two County Court Decisions

The 4th District Court of Appeals recently upheld two decisions of the Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

The appellate court upheld the local court's ruling on the Village of Orient vs. the County Board of Elections suit, and the case of the State vs. Reese Desmond Starkey.

Orient versus the board of elections was a suit in which the northern township village filed a writ of mandamus to compel the board of elections to re-apportion the Nov. 6, 1957 election expenses.

The village maintained that the election board failed to apportion the expenses of the fall election among the various political subdivisions properly.

THE election board filed a demurrer against Orient's petition,

GOP Is Urged

Rockefeller of New York drew a polite reception. He is an advocate of government assistance in some welfare fields and of government efforts to speed the nation's economic growth.

Some party leaders said they believed the platform will fall somewhere between the conflicting viewpoints of Goldwater and Rockefeller. They based this on the belief that Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the probable presidential nominee, will urge a middle road.

Goldwater told the committee he is concerned that his party might lose its identity "in a mistaken effort to adopt the tactics and practices of the spend-and-spend, elect-and-elect architects of the New Deal and the Fair Deal."

Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin, chairman of the House Republican Policy Committee, said he would prefer party defeat to adoption of what he called a spending platform.

Rockefeller, on the other hand, expressed concern over what he called the slow pace of the nation's economic growth.

"Stagnation and timidity are alien," he said. "Let us, then, act in economic affairs as in political affairs, with a vigor and a resolve and a confidence worthy of the men who helped America grow toward greatness from the day of the nation's birth."

Custodian Albert Evans gave his word of honor the gold was okay, but he wouldn't let the Chicagoan closer than the gate.

Carter has written dozens of letters asking admittance to the vault but has been turned down every time.

His last letter, to Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower, explained he didn't "want to bother the President right now because he's busy with Mr. Khrushchev and Mr. Castro." He asked if Mrs. Eisenhower might bring up the subject to the President when "he is sitting around relaxing some night."

Firemen Check Fan

Circleville Firemen were called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cooper, 307 E. Franklin St., at 11:10 p. m. yesterday to check an electric fan.

Firemen said the fan motor burned.

Drivers Fined For Speeding

Motorists charged with exceeding the speed limit topped Circleville Municipal Court's traffic docket today.

Ten drivers cited into court by the State Highway Patrol were: Lee A. Daft, 18, Columbus, $30 and costs for speeding at 80 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Harold H. Thompson, 31, Route 5, Portsmouth; $25 and costs for speeding at 75 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Ralph Dotson, 21, Columbus, Joe Justice, 30, South Bloomingville, and Clarence Cottrill, 21, Chillicothe; each fined $15 and costs for speeding at 65 miles per hour in a 50 mile zone.

Joseph Saltz, 56, McArthur; $15 and costs for speeding at 75 miles per hour.

Larry R. Herron, 18, Route 4, Circleville; $15 and costs for passing with out assured clear distance ahead.

French E. Laxton, 29, Columbus; $10 and costs for speeding at 70 miles per hour.

Thurman Bryant, 31, Kenova, W. Va.; $39 bond forfeiture for failure to display warning devices for a truck stalled on the highway.

Marie A. Yeager, 42, Gahanna, $39 bond forfeiture for no valid operator's license.

Forrest Tootle, 10, of 706 S. Clinton St., was arrested by city police for speeding at 50 miles per hour in a 25 mile zone. He was fined $25 and costs.

Council Discusses Rezoning, Levy

Three rezoning proposals and presentations of a two - mill levy resolution for repair of city streets were items of discussion in a meeting of Circleville Council last night.

One of the rezoning ordinances was held to first reading. Another was scheduled for public hearing. The solons took no action on the two - mill resolution.

Will of Author Omits Apology for Small Size Estate

LOS ANGELES (AP) — George Fowler left a will in which he offered no apologies to his heirs "for the fact that I have given such small attention to the material prizes of the world."

The will, written in 1953 by the famed newspaperman turned biographer and novelist, was filed in Probate Court Monday.

"There comes a time in the life of every artist," the document said, "when he must choose between the objectives of money and—or the sure prospect of lonely struggle and sacrifice—a lack of recognition until he grows old or is dead. The latter choice was mine, and my only regret that I am unable to insure financial protection of my loved wife, Agnes."

Fowler, who died July 2 at left everything to his widow. His estate was described as real a personal property worth more than $10,000.

Rose Is Named To FHA Group For Pickaway

Appointment of Charles W. Rose, Route 1, Williamsport, as a member of the Farmers Home Administration Pickaway County Committee was announced this week by Wade E. Jeffers, the agency's county supervisor serving Pickaway, Madison and Franklin Counties.

Rose owns and operates a beef cattle operation near Williamsport. He started his new post July 1.

Two other members make up the three-member committee which works with the county supervisor to see that the best possible use is made of the agency's farm credit service program consistent with local farmers' needs. The other two members are Joseph C. Peters, Route 1, Ashville and Ernest C. Bidwell, Route 1, Orient.

Each member is appointed for a three-year term. Rose succeeds Dick T. Tootle, Route 2, Circleville, whose term expired this year.

THE committee determines the eligibility of individual applicants for all types of loans. It also reviews borrowers' progress and aids the county supervisor in adapting the agency's loan policies to conditions faced by farmers in this area. Members are selected and appointed so that, as far as possible, different areas or neighborhoods are represented.

The Farmers Home Administration makes annual or intermediate term loans to farmers who need adequate funds to buy equipment and livestock, long term loans to build or repair farm houses and other essential farm buildings and to purchase or improve land suitable for family-type farm operations.

It also advances credit to farmers or their non-profit associations to establish and carry out approved soil and water conservation practices and to install and improve irrigation and farmstead water facilities. Jeffers and Rose are in the Pickaway County Extension office each Tuesday from 10:00 a. m. to 12 noon. There are pamphlets explaining the FHA program available at the County Agent's office.

The first steam warship built for the U. S. Navy was the Demilogs. Launched during the War of 1812, it had 44 big guns plus a trick gear that kept 300 pikes and cutlasses jerking in and out of her sides to cut down enemy boarders.

Pickaway Grange

MT. PLEASANT GRANGE
Mt. Pleasant Grange met July 13 with Master Lewis Dean in charge.

During the business meeting a motion was made to send $10 to Magnetic Springs.

The Grange voted for Wayne Luckhart as delegate and Mrs. Judson Beougher as alternate to the State Grange Convention.

It was announced that Pomona Grange will meet August 12 at 8 p. m. at Scioto School. The grange decided to pay Pomona dues for Sue Rihl who will represent our grange in the baking contest.

The Home Economics Chairman asked for donations and help to serve lunch at Bloodmobile visit July 21.

EVELYN Peart asked the County Fair Booth Committee to meet at her home Monday night.

The program was on Current Events and subjects of interest to Grange members. Amy Rittinger read an article on "Traffic Violations" followed by discussion.

Bea Bumgarner told about some legislation which was recently passed putting sales tax on milk coolers and other milking equipment. She suggested writing to the "Ohio Tax Commissioner" if you are against this.

Darrell Hatfield talked on "Voting". He gave several cases where a person was elected by just one vote. Galen Mowery read an article on "Why Do Women Seek Marriage?", and Annabelle Mowery read one on "Men Marry Simply To Live Longer".

Refreshments were served by the committee. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Cooke Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller, Joyce and Clark Miller.

Cardiac Clinic at OSU Is Assured by Grant

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Public Health Service has awarded $23,600 for study by the cardiac clinic of Ohio State University.

Ohio Health Director Ralph E. Dwork, announcing the award, said the state will contribute manpower for the project.

In the study, electronic computers will be used to develop a formula for the best method of detecting potential heart conditions. Dwork said such a method would be especially helpful for those between the ages of 46 and 62 years when conditions often lead to heart disorders.

Have Your Questions Ready

If you haven't been greeted on the street by a stranger who runs up to you, grasps your hand in a hearty hello and says, "How do you do? I'm Morton Abercrombie and I'm running for..." don't despair. There are thousands of candidates beating the bushes for votes and chances are that before the November elections at least one will have found you.

Most persons are surprised by the exuberance of political candidates and their obvious efforts to enlist support. No doubt there are many questions they would like to ask those vying for the privilege of serving them, but an unexpected encounter with a candidate seems to jog everything from memory except a stammering acknowledgement.

Right now, pick up a pencil and paper and write down the questions you would ask a political candidate if you were an acquaintance of his. What is his solution for the farm problem, what would he try to do about keeping spending in line with income, does he think taxes should be decreased or increased, does he believe in keeping his constituents informed about the actions of government, and so forth.

Carry this paper with you and try to make a point of meeting candidates as they carry the campaign to your neighborhood. They may be slightly abashed at meeting a prepared voter, but the proof of their competency is in your opinion of their ideas. Public speeches are well polished and carefully constructed not to displease a major segment of the public. A candidate may touch upon specific issues, but his solutions and suggestions frequently follow generalizations. Personal contact will enable you to determine what kind of person he is.

Don't back away from an opportunity to meet your candidates, even if it is only from the relative closeness of an auditorium. Watch one of the victors in November will have a major influence on the destinies of his constituents and the nation. Certainly the individual voter is not nearly as important as he often feels he is.

A Lie Is Told for a Daughter

By Hal Boyle

LAKE TARLETON, N.H. (AP)—Every father remembers the first time he lied for his daughter. She doesn't—but he does.

Well, I came here to appear at a summer arts festival where people on vacation respond to world problems while they simmer and summer under the sun.

They may not solve any problems at the moment, but they hear them at their leisure—and this not a bad way to study any problem. Anxiety often produces premature efforts to a wrong conclusion.

As to my lying, there was a shortage of other children, here, but there was a boy here whose father said his son was "almost 10." And I said my daughter, who is one month beyond 7, was "growing on 8."

Well, that is true, for sure, but it only alerts me to those half-truths which aren't whole truths but which are part of the whole picture which a father must soften in presenting the portrait of his daughter.

If she would rather be antiquated at 7, and perhaps at 30 presented as 23, it is the function of the father to box the calendar to his daughter's will.

In her own way Tracy made up the distance between her age of 7, and Tommy's almost 10, and she showed that kind of uncanny feminine sense of adjustment that in my opinion represents military genius.

There are those who feel that true military ability consists of getting the other person, without waste of himself, to bend his ability to your purpose and the sustenance of your endeavor. Under this definition the best militarism is a good marriage.

Well anyway, Tracy, my daughter, made her march on Tommy, and employed her childhood feminine tentacles which later she will fasten to a later fellow and cling to—and the Lord help him.

At the present moment I have only a philosophic feeling of help toward my future son-in-law. I feel, being observant to the terrible grasp of my daughter, I should raise a fund for him to run away from home if he isn't content.

Yet my daughter is not without her kindness, now and I hope forever.

The other night, just before our one-week vacation was over, I took her for a walk in these green-templed hills when the evening star lit the eternal meadows of the dark.

Tracy is neighbor to both nature and nurture, and I held her hand till we came to a wishing well on the way home. I gave her three pennies to drop in the well—a coin for her father, her mother, and herself.

"I wished for you and Mommy the same thing—a happy life," she said. "And I wished I would marry a nice boy and have a nice life, too."

Convention Oratory Is Dead

By George Sokolsky

One thing about the Democratic Convention: oratory seems to be dead. No one orator appeared on the rostrum. Not one speaker showered the spectators with wit, humor, pathos, flights of language or flights of thought. There was no William Jennings Bryan; there was no Bourke Cockran. The silver tongues had become base metal.

It was anticipated that Sen. Frank Church would deliver such a keynote speech as would make the rafters ring. Nothing rang. Also there were no rafters. Perhaps the microphones kill the voice.

Edmund Burke had no microphone, yet his oratory lives forever; Patrick Henry spoke without a television audience; Daniel Webster needed director to tell him when to come on and go off.

Sen. Church employed polished gestures, but not convincing ones. All this throwing arms up above the head, a sort of political symbol which everybody seems to use these days, looks ridiculous on television. I notice prize fighters do it too.

Jack O'Brien, the T. V. expert, makes the point that Sen. Church's speech was too long. No speech is too long or too short. It is either gripping, startling, sustained, noble, interesting, exciting or it is dull. The speeches were dull: a two minute speech can be dull; a two hour speech could be brilliant and charming.

ma scolding a family of juvenile delinquents.

The nominators and seconders were astonishing. The shortest of them was Sam Rayburn who had his say and let it go at that. He made no pretensions at oratory. Some of the others felt that they had to reach stentorian climaxes with each phrase.

I should imagine that the most ridiculous clap-trappy sort of street corner harangue was delivered by Senator Eugene McCarthy of Minnesota when he was engaged in attempting to resurrect the dead. His nomination of Adlai Stevenson, spoken not to the delegates but to the motley crew that worked its way into the convention hall for a Blitz which died aborning, lacked both form and content. It was hysterical. He does much better in the halls of Congress.

If the conventions are going to permit television to expose them, they will have to adopt new devices. Oratory is a glorious art. It is designed to make words act psychologically as music. The true orator must have language, voice and gesture—a combination that exits into the mind and soul of a listener. Those who may have had an opportunity to hear William Jennings Bryan speak his "Cross of Gold" speech, or Orson Welles do the Marc Antony speech over Caesar's body can have a measure of oratory.

Some politicians believe that they can touch the human soul or wash the mind by shouting, getting red in the face and swinging their arms. The microphone resists shouting; television pales the face and arm-swinging is cut out of the picture. What comes over is a big, open mouth over an extended chin and a voice that is metallic and tenorish. No orator was ever a tenor.

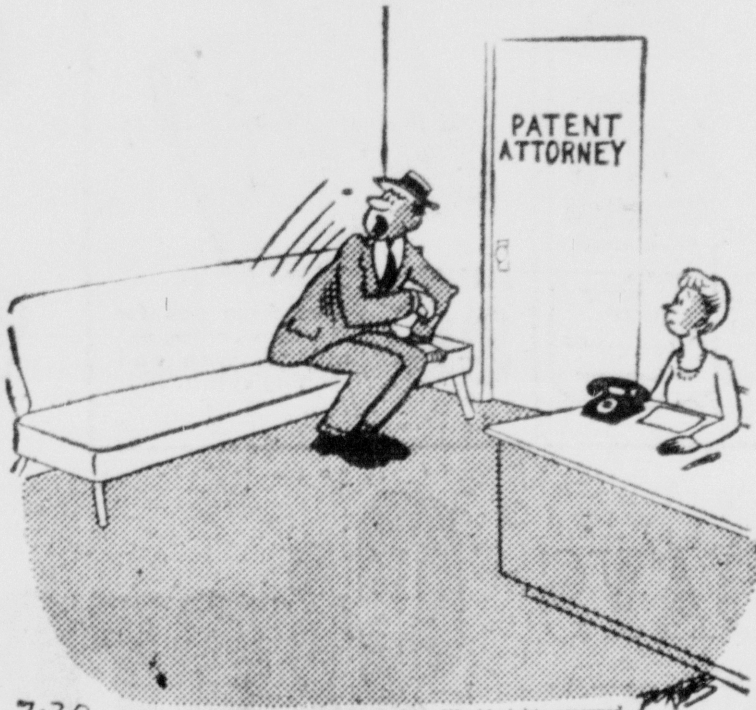

Thus far I have referred only to form. As for content, what can be said? Even the commentators, who speak English professionally every day, had to admit that Gov. Collins of Florida spoke a more correct English, better pronounced than had been heard in conventions in many years.

Some pronunciations were hardly understandable and the prompter machine, which is a device of the devil, sometimes fouled up a speaker. Did Demosthenes require a prompter machine to tell him what to do? Or did Cicero? What weaklings machines have made us. We shall not only lose our legs; we shall have voices like chickadees.

Don't Drive with 1/2-Brain

By Herman Bunde sen. M. D.

Do you drive with two hands but only half a brain?

An insurance company looked into some statistics concerning our appalling number of traffic accidents, and said you do. At least, the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company indicates, 90 per cent of our autos are driven part or full time by temporary half-wits.

Perhaps you are among the other ten per cent, but I kind of doubt that.

I think just about all of us are guilty, some time or other, of operating about 4,000 lethal pounds of motor vehicle with only half of our intelligence actually applied to our driving.

For example, if you are a man, approximately half of your intelligence usually is devoted to driving while the other half is occupied with:

Talking.

Listening to the radio (just wait till we get auto television).

Thinking about what you should have said in that argument with your wife boss or fellow employee.

Calculating the desirability of a business deal.

Daydreaming.

Admiring the girl in shorts who is coming out of the supermarket.

Women drivers, according to the insurance men, use half of their intelligence on:

Setting an argument among the children.

Wondering what to have for dinner.

Considering the tempting sale of dresses and lingerie announced in the newspaper.

Thinking about the girl in shorts (but the reaction is different from that of the male motorist).

Now what is likely to happen when you drive with only half a brain?

You are apt to do utterly stupid things.

You are likely to stop suddenly, turn rudely in front of another car, speed recklessly or perform any number of other maneuvers which will leave the drivers behind you wondering whether you have any brain at all.

When you work at your job, you generally devote all of your concentration to it, don't you?

Well, do the same thing when you're driving. After all, with traffic the way it is in most communities these days, driving is work, too.

Question and Answer

P. J.: Will drinking water with a meal cause gas?

Answer: Drinking water with your meals cannot cause gas unless a great deal of air is swallowed with the water.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP)—The second most important job in the government, secretary of state, won't be in the hands of the voters at all when they choose their new president and vice president next November.

There is speculation now that if Sen. John F. Kennedy wins the presidency he will choose between Adlai E. Stevenson and Chester Bowles in naming his secretary. There is not even speculation on who'd be a new Republican president's choice.

But in the next four years — with Russia growing stronger, more daring and more belligerent and Red China's muscles getting bigger day by day — the secretary of state will have a tremendous burden.

One thing seems sure. Even if the Republicans win the election, the present secretary, Christian A. Herter, will step out. Herter is an honest man and an earnest one, but during his secretaryship this country has suffered diplomatic disasters.

For instance, there were the American U2 spy plane downed over Russia, the State Department's bumbling in handling that episode, the blowup of the summit meeting, the cancellation of President Eisenhower's trips to Russia and Japan.

In addition there has been the wretched deterioration in relations with Cuba, the Soviet efforts to get a foot in there, the debacle in the Congo, and the Communist maneuvering to edge into Africa.

These are probably only samples of problems to come but as yet unimagined.

Handling them will call for firmness and decision and, perhaps above all, imagination in finding new methods of dealing with communism to prevent its expansion.

For most of Eisenhower's two terms John Foster Dulles was his secretary of state, and the President relied upon his judgment perhaps more than any president in this century has leaned on a secretary of state.

Dulles was many things—tough, agile, tireless — but imagination was not one of his strong points. He really initiated very little. Instead he took over from his predecessor, Dean Acheson, the policy of containment which is still being followed through a system of alliances and overseas bases.

While this system will probably be retained in the four years ahead, the most delicate tasks will probably lie elsewhere — in devising means of inducing the backward people of Africa and elsewhere to be neutral or friendly to this country.

Kennedy the Democrats' presidential nominee, and vice president Richard M. Nixon, who seems certain to be the Republicans' presidential choice, are both strong-minded men.

Either as president would almost certainly be the dominant figure in foreign affairs in his administration, but each would have to rely to an enormous degree on the day-by-day and long-range judgment of his secretary of state.

Stevenson, while he has traveled widely around the world since first losing the presidential race to Eisenhower in 1952, has never held a high overseas government assignment.

Bowles, now a Democratic congressman from Connecticut, was ambassador to India and was Kennedy's foreign policy adviser during the latter's campaign for the presidential nomination. Both Bowles and Stevenson have written on foreign affairs.

There has been so much speculation on who may be Nixon's vice presidential running mate this year that very little has been said about his possible choice of a secretary of state.

A group of U. S. college students, in protest at Fidel Castro's actions, dumped 80 pounds of Cuban sugar into the sea. Maybe it'll sweeten up some of that tea that went overboard at Boston back in 1773.

Milt, the sterling printer, says no matter how many political conventions are held we never seem to fun fresh out of keynote speech-makers.

Some 75 million acres of land in the continental United States is desert, swamp, rocky or just barren. What a wonderful challenge, declares the man at the next desk, for an energetic real estate salesman!

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT:

Public Beaches

- Exercises For Cramps
- Luminous Clocks

Q. Is overcrowding of beaches a health hazard to swimmers?

A. The Public Health Laboratory Service Of England made a 7-year study of this problem. Samples of sea water were collected from over 40 different beaches. The English investigators seemed to agree that while heavily contaminated sea water (but not fresh water) at certain beaches could theoretically cause a great deal of disease, the fact of the matter is that it doesn't.

Q. Are exercises helpful in overcoming cramps and discomfort during certain days?

A. Some doctors advocate stretching exercises for dysmenorrhea (painful menstruation). Others either are not so sure that it helps or attribute the good results simply to enthusiasm for this method of treatment. If exercises help the individual, then it doesn't matter whether there is medical agreement as to the whys and wherefores.

Q. I have had a radium dial clock beside my bed for years. Could such a clock give off enough radiation to cause cancer?

A. The amount of radiation given off by a radium dial clock would not in itself be sufficient to cause harm. However, it adds to the total radiation we receive and in this sense it might be considered undesirable. Man cannot escape some radiation. We are constantly exposed to "background" radiation originating within and above the earth. This amount of radiation — and more — isn't harmful but there is a limit. Because the hazards of radiation are not fully known it is best to avoid unnecessary exposure. A radium dial watch or clock is a drop in the radiation bucket but why add the drop when it isn't necessary?

Jet Expert Sees Vast Gains Ahead

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An airliner that can fly from Los Angeles to Copenhagen, Denmark, in an hour and a half; a manned space station; a settlement on the moon—all of this can happen in the next decade, a ramjet engine expert says.

Roy Marquardt of Van Nuys, Calif., president of the Marquardt Corp., envisioned the advancements at a meeting Monday of rocket scientists and engineers at Ohio State University. Airliners could be built within 10 years that would fly at speeds of 2,800 to 4,200 m.p.h., he said.

Dear Abby...

Golf Widow Tees Off

DEAR ABBY: There are many jokes about "golf widows" and, believe me, they're not funny. My husband is sweet, generous and loving, but he spends every spare minute on the golf course. Could you give me a cure? Or maybe some other golf widows have some suggestions. Don't tell me to go with him because I have children and a house to take care of.

Please print this because one of the few things my husband does when he comes home from playing golf is read the paper.

GOLF WIDOW
DEAR GOLF WIDOW: When you consider how many other traps men have fallen into during their "spare moments", a sand trap isn't so bad. Quit beefing. Lots of women would love a husband whose only vice was chasing a little white ball.

DEAR ABBY: You will have to answer me in the paper because I have no address.

You see, I ran away from home when my mother whipped me with the iron cord because I wore her nylons. I am 15 and can't get along with my mother. I love her but we can't stay on good terms for ten minutes. Please tell me where I can get work for my keep without the police finding me and taking me home.

HOMELESS
DEAR HOMELESS: Go home! If the police find you before you start for home you might be booked as a "runaway" and much unpleasantness and humiliation could follow. All mothers blow up occasionally when provoked. I am sure your mother loves you, too.

The 1960 road surfacing program includes applying bitumens, crush gravel and plant mix T-35 materials to county highways.

The program estimate totals $116,429.31. This includes 34,255 gallons of road tar, RT-3, $7,536.10; 137,500 gallons of road tar, RT-7, $185,302.50; 45,056 gallons of asphalt, RS-3, $9,011.20.

The road programs include: 1.1 miles of the Tarleton-Adelphi Road from the Kingston-Adelphi Road to the Hayesville-Adelphi Road; 12.65 miles of the Circleville-London-Northern Road from Darbyville to the county line;

A total of 8 1/2 miles of the Circleville-Commercial Point Road from Route 104 to Mt. Sterling-Commercial Point Road; 4 1/2 miles of the Darbyville-Williamsport Road from the Circleville-London-Northern Road to the Palestine-Williamsport Road.

Approximately 1.6 miles of the Chillicothe-Williamsport Road from the Dawson-Yankee town Pike to Williamsport; 3.5 miles

Nearly 5.2 miles of the New Holland-Clarkburg Road from U. S. Route 22 to State Route 277; 5.6 miles of the Darbyville-Columbus Road from the Mt. Sterling-Commercial Road to State Route 316; One mile of the Tarleton-Adelphi Road from the Hayesville-Adelphi Road to State Route 56; 1.2 miles of the Ashville-Fairfield Road from the intersection of the East Ringgold-Northern Road to the county line.

FOUR MILES of the Circleville-London-Northern Road will receive RT-7 and crushed gravel from the intersection of Gulick Road to a point just south of Derby.

Four miles of Harrisburg-Darbyville Road from the intersection of the Mt. Sterling-Commercial Point Road to a point just south of Route 62.

Two roads will receive hot mix, T-35. They are the Circleville-Groveport Road from the county line south two miles and the Circleville Lockbourne Road from Ashville, 2.3 miles south to Route 508.

In other action Monday, the Commissioners also approved two transfers over the objections of Morris, who voted against both measures.

A total of $1,450 was transferred to the County Agricultural Society for its grandstand. The money was taken from the Fairgrounds' bleacher fund.

They also transferred $856 from the Commissioners' equipment and permanent improvements fund to unanticipated emergencies and then transferred the total into the Fairgrounds' bleacher fund.

Views on Television - Radio

By MITCH MILLER

Written For The Associated Press

Since the beginning of television and until May 24, 1960, with very few exceptions, the quality of musical sound and musical production numbers on TV have been awful. "Hurray for the picture and damn the sound" has been the uncreative cry of TV's creative people.

On May 24, 1960, we did an hour show titled "Sing Along with Mitch." The final count still isn't complete, but the last report revealed that close to 20,000 letters, phone calls and telegrams were received. NBC, by me by the sponsor, and by newspapers all over the country. Their only purpose was to voice delighted satisfaction with the show. In 90 percent of these letters the writers mentioned the sponsor, the thing TV has been dying for years.

What really does this avalanche of praise, for which I am so grateful, mean? It means that millions of American youngsters and adults were starved for a selection of popular music with familiar and pretty melodies, vocalized by a superb chorus of 25, reproduced with detailed attention to sound quality that everybody could hum or sing with. The star of our show was music — music that has withstood the test of 40 years of singing around the piano. The pictures that accompanied his music were simple, uncomplicated, and never once interfered.

I've reorded nine "Sing Along" albums so far which have sold over 4 1/2 million copies. What more proof could you have that America want to hear and sing good songs?

Why did I have to wait so long, then, to put on this simple show that has been ready for years? Because the TV executives have one primary rule — they would rather fail with stars who cannot create excitement rather than risk succeeding with unknown but talented people.

They are not, or were not, interested in how well will you entertain but ask what star have you got. The startime people were finally impressed, I guess, with the powerful success story of the unprecedented sale of the "Sing Along" albums and decided to take a gamble.

Await Holders Of State Bonds

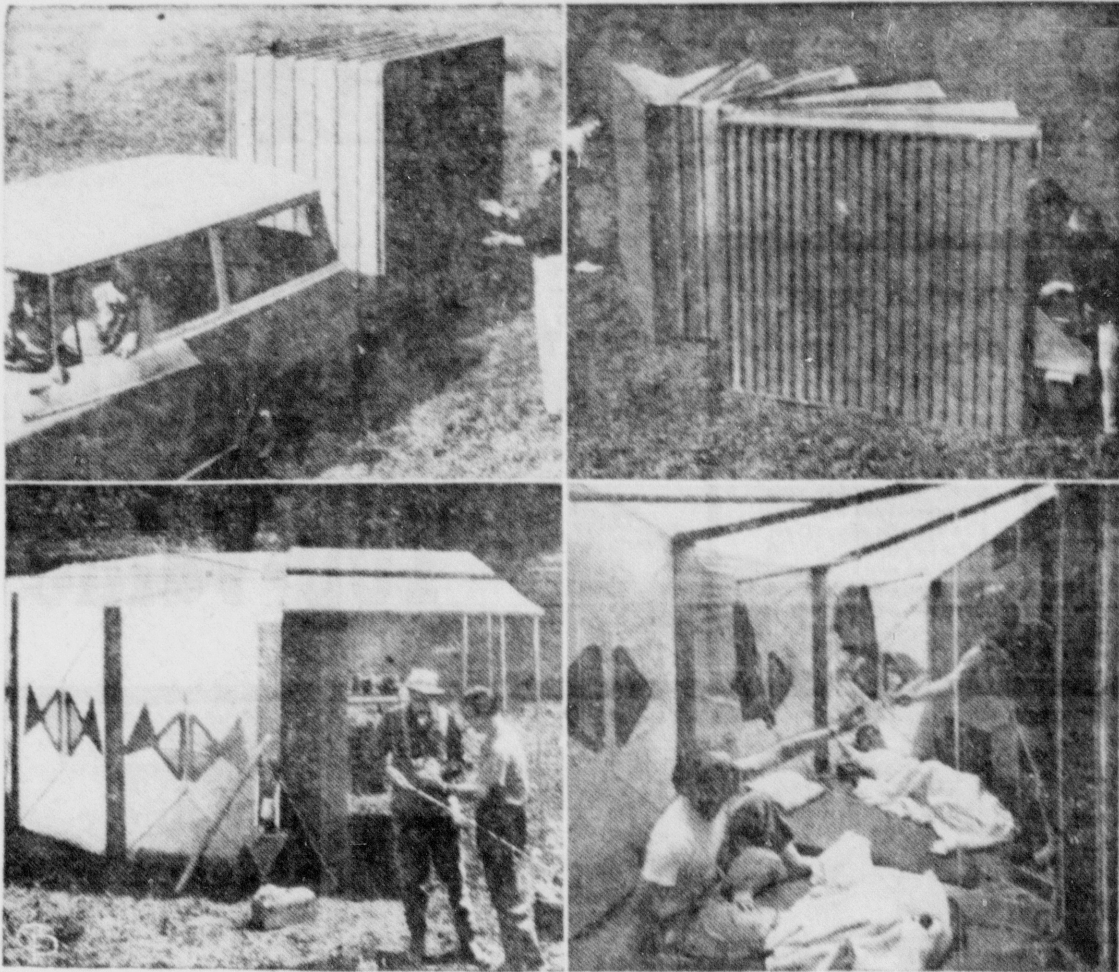

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Near a half-million dollars is waiting holders of four state bond issues who have failed to cash their matured obligations and overdue interest coupons.

State auditor James A. Rhodes said today investors have failed to cash $246,000 in matured bonds and another 201,177 in interest coupons.

The largest cash settlement—$177,712—is due holders of World War II bonus bonds. The total includes $26,712 in interest and $151,000 in matured bonds, of which $20,000 matured Oct. 15, 1955.

All matured capital improvement bonds have been redeemed but interest coupons worth $47,619 are uncashed. Holders of Korean Conflict bonus bonds have $30,000 from matured bonds waiting for them, and an additional $40,095 in interest.

Nonpareil (if you are a printer, you know that is a size of type between agate and minion) is a town in Box Butte County of Nebraska.

'INSTANT' HOUSE—From Indianapolis, Ind., comes this folding trailer that sleeps six persons in individual triangular "bedrooms." It is called the Accordion, and is from Alcoa's Forecast collection. The framework is of aluminum.

Group To Demand Public Housing Vote

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Toledo homebuilder today announced formation of a non-profit organization to work for a law requiring a popular election in areas contemplated for public housing.

Robert M. Jones of Toledo, president of the newly-chartered body, said a statutory provision is needed so that voters can say whether they want public housing projects in their neighborhoods.

Other officers of the organization, known as the Ohio Citizens Survey Council, include Raymond D. Sharp of Cincinnati and Carl Duldner, Cleveland, vice-presidents; Lewis F. Byers of Columbus, treasurer, and W. R. Manning of Zanesville, secretary.

Ohio Legion Set For Convention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio American Legion convention which meets in Columbus next weekend, is expected to attract more than 5,000 delegates, members and marching groups.

Joseph S. Deuschle Sr., state adjutant, said 400 women, comprising the vanguard of the convention, will open a two-day session of the Legion Auxiliary at the Neil House Wednesday under the leadership of Mrs. Fred Krabenbuhl Sr., of Hamilton.

The legion will open headquarters at the Deshler Hilton Hotel Thursday and convention sessions will open there Friday. The convention will close Sunday with a parade in which an estimated 5,000 members of musical and marching units will participate.

Here Is How Jack Views Issues of Age, Religion

Editor's Note Two personal issues involving Sen. John F. Kennedy have loomed large in his pre-convention campaign and are likely to recur, with varying emphasis, in the presidential drive ahead—his age and his religion. Here's how the Democratic nominee has proposed to meet them. Last of three articles.

By RELMAN MORIN
AP Special Correspondent

Sen. John Fitzgerald Kennedy is a Roman Catholic. He is 43 years old but looks younger.

To some politicians both facts are handicaps to a candidate for the presidency. Kennedy's religion involved the memory of the 1928 election when the Democratic candidate, Alfred E. Smith of New York, a Catholic, went down to defeat. As to Kennedy's age, former President Truman recently asked him to consider whether he is sufficiently mature and experienced to be president.

Kennedy himself recognized that the voters might wonder about him on both counts.

So nearly a year ago, before he announced for the Democratic nomination, John set out to meet the two questions, head-on. As his campaign progressed, he used three principal tactics—

First, he practically invited questions from his audiences. Second, he demonstrate his vote-pulling power in primary elections, notably West Virginia, where the Catholic population is small.

Third, he took two strategic opportunities to deliver major speeches, one on his religion and the other on his age, before large and important audiences.

An incident in a small California city last autumn was typical.

After his speech Kennedy was answering questions. A man asked a confused, double-barreled question, partly about a national issue and partly about Kennedy's religion.

The senator replied: "It seems to me these are two separate questions, but first as to my religion . . ."

He then stated, as he was to restate many times later, his reasons for insisting that a man's religion should not be a factor in his fitness for office.

Kennedy said, time and again, that as president he would not accept dictation from any source.

Before the West Virginia primary, he said: "I would hate to think I lost this election the day I was baptized." Paul Ziffren, California national committeeman says this single sentence gave Kennedy the state.

Then, before the American Society of Newspaper Editors meeting in Washington last April, Kennedy made a full-dress review of the question.

Among other things, he told the editors: "There is only one legitimate question: Would you, as president of the United States, be responsive in any way to ecclesiastical pressures or obligations of any kind that might in any fashion influence or interfere with your conduct of that office in the national interest? I have answered that question many times. My answer was and is 'No.'"

He said he opposed federal aid to parochial schools and would oppose, if the issue arose, an ambassador to the Vatican.

Referring to the Wisconsin primary, he asked: "Of those Catholics who voted for me, how many did so on grounds of religion? how many because they felt my opponent was too radical; how many because they were union members; how many for some other reason? I do not know. And the facts are that no one knows."

"For the voters are more than Catholics, Protestants, or Jews. They make up their minds for many diverse reasons good and bad."

He noted that he had taken the oath of office many times, as senator and congressman, and had "little or no attention was paid to my religion" on those occasions. He asked, "What is there about the presidency that justifies this constant emphasis upon a candidate's religion?"

Finally, he noted that the issue exists, and said, "It is my job to face it frankly and fully."

The matter of Kennedy's age and experience did not arise so often. But after Truman's question, Kennedy went on television to answer it.

He made two main points:

1. "If we are to establish a test for the presidency whereby 14 years in major elective office is insufficient experience, then all but a handful of our presidents since the very founding of this nation would have to be ruled out, and every president in the 20th Century would have to be ruled out."

2. "To exclude from positions of trust and command all those below the age of 44 would have kept Jefferson from writing the Declaration of Independence, Washington from commanding the Continental Army, Madison from fathering the Constitution, Hamilton from serving as secretary of the treasury, Clay from being elected speaker of the House, and Christopher Columbus from discovering America. I do not believe the American people are willing to impose any such test. For this is still a young country, founded by young men. . . ."

IT'S DRAFTY IN THE WINDY CITY—Getting ready for the Republican National convention in Chicago, two supporters of New York's Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, Carol Turek and Marc Goodhart, put up signs at "Draft Rockefeller" headquarters at the Blackstone theater.

PONY EXPRESS RIDES AGAIN!—Here is route of the Pony Express Centennial association's memorial ride between St. Joseph, Mo., and Sacramento, Calif., July 19-28, the same trail the famed horsemen rode a hundred years ago. Riders rode off at each city in a two-way revival of the pioneering mail carrying. The Pony Express had 120 riders, 400 horses, 190 way stations. It lasted only 18 months. (Central Press)

GARDEN

Edited and Compiled by
Mrs. Elizabeth Jones

It's Almost Time Now To Plant Your Peonies

When a gardener buys a penny plant he makes a life - time investment. Budget - wise no garden dollar is spent more judiciously.

Spring bulbs come and spring bulbs go but a peony plant is here to stay. Peonies make a magnificent display in the May garden. Their foliage is beautiful and contributes greatly to a mid - summer garden.

We attribute the fact that gardeners do not add a new peony to their garden every is the business of fall planting.

August and September planting is recommended for peony roots. The average gardener has "had it" by this time. He is just not in a mood to send away for and plant new things at this season.

OF COURSE peony roots may be planted in spring. But they are if I am not mistaken, cold storage roots. At any rate it's asking too much to expect a peony to bloom the spring it's planted.

Now a fall planted peony will in all probability bloom the following spring.

Peonies may be planted in any good garden soil that has sufficient drainage. The buds on the crown must be about two inches below the soil surface.

Tamp the soil of the hole where you plant your new peony root so that the buds will not sink below two inches. Too deep planting is one of the reasons for peonies not blooming.

Yes, if you are dividing peony plants do so in August and September. We do not recommend ever dividing them. But if you want to share or if you want more plants are bent on dividing follow Mrs. Paul Johnson's advice.

Mrs. Johnson, who lives on Woodland Drive and has great success with peonies, says to life the entire clump and divide. Do not hack at the roots of the plant with a spade trying to get a start.

Posey Experts Giving Easier Advice Now

Garden writers lean over backwards frequently in an honest effort to give the gardener reliable times a garden book will suggest that the very first thing to do when you're making a garden is to have the soil tested.

"Take a sample to the county extension office," the writer will tell you.

We have lived in our present home for 21 years and each time we read this advice we think, "Well, this year for sure, I'm going to have the soil tested." And to this day my garden soil has never been tested although the field soil has been and with varying results.

So it was with surprise that I learned from Victor Ries that soil testing is not such a basic factor in good gardening after all. Ries maintains that with good garden practices, like a good basic fertilizer and plenty of humus added each year, a garden will produce satisfactorily year after year.

It was with still more surprise that I learned from Harry O'Brien that it's not absolutely essential to have your soil pulverized to perfection when planting seeds. O'Brien's theory is that some a hard rain the soil that is too pulverized will form a crust that is impenetrable. A few lumps do not matter but actually help in such a case.

Now the Scott Lawn people tell us that deep watering is not necessary. They came by this idea from interviewing the greens superintendents of many golf clubs.

Their crews water lightly several times a day. And they do not worry about what time a day to water. They sprinkle the greens when they have time to spare and when the greens need it.

They water morning, noon or night and they do not hesitate to water in the bright sun. Don't allow the grass to dry deeply and it is not necessary to water deeply.

Now this could conceivably happen in the case of Gladiolus or Hyacinth or even on Roses, but is a very rare occurrence and very often it doesn't happen as much as it has been reported.

Roses, for instance. Sometimes we have people say that their roses have reverted back to the wild form, while the wild form simply means that they have allowed shoots from the root stock to develop and these shoots begin quite vigorous since the root stock is a quite vigorous plant.

This vigorous root stock will take over the desired variety of rose and within a years time the desired variety is completely eliminated from the bush. Then all you would have would be the Multiflora or wild form, so to speak, of the rose.

The wedding and Caribbean honeymoon voyage aboard the royal yacht Britannia of Princess Margaret and Antony Armstrong-Jones cost about $185,000.

Now this could conceivably happen in the case of Gladiolus or Hyacinth or even on Roses, but is a very rare occurrence and very often it doesn't happen as much as it has been reported.

Most Flower Plants Rarely 'Revert'

Says Carboneau
Despite Frequent
Reports He Hears

We have frequently come across gardeners who insist that they have plants in their garden which have "reverted" or changed in some basic way.

So frequent have these reports come in and by gardeners who are so careful and scientific in approach that we asked Marvin in Carboneau, extension specialist of floriculture at Ohio State University to please explain the phenomenon.

We explained to Carboneau that the reports often came from the county's "best gardeners".

Carboneau believes that this curious change noted by gardeners stems from: "A long history of plants that have been in a garden and have not been taken care of in a manner that tends to keep the plants in the condition they were in at the time they were planted."

TAKE for instance phlox, which apparently have reverted.

The new variety of phlox will definitely revert back to the common colors if the seed is left on the new variety and if this seed falls to the ground, it often germinates and smother, so to speak the wanted variety out of existence.

This has happened on several occasions and that is why the red or the pink variety of phlox will revert back to a magenta color. Now, for the other types of plants some reports that Lilacs have reverted, for example, back to the old fashion form. The French Hybrids, for instance, reverting back to the old fashion form of lilac.

Now this can occur by the home owner doing an extensive amount of pruning or by not pruning off the suckers which arise from the base of the plant below the graft union.

Now very often the French Hybrid variety of lilac are grafted onto the common lilac forms. If the common lilac root stock and produces new shoots and if these shoots are left to develop, many times they are more vigorous than the French Hybrids, which was grafted onto the root stock originally, and then you get a reversion back to the old form.

On the question of other plants turning colors, there are some reports and some of them are authentic reports that certain plants can become a different color, and sometimes there are even different foliage forms.

This is supported by the fact that many plants do "sport". These sports will sometimes be more vigorous than the variety on which they occur and if this is the case very often you will get different colored sports or two different colored flowers on the main plant.

Now this could conceivably happen in the case of Gladiolus or Hyacinth or even on Roses, but is a very rare occurrence and very often it doesn't happen as much as it has been reported.

Roses, for instance. Sometimes we have people say that their roses have reverted back to the wild form, while the wild form simply means that they have allowed shoots from the root stock to develop and these shoots begin quite vigorous since the root stock is a quite vigorous plant.

This vigorous root stock will take over the desired variety of rose and within a years time the desired variety is completely eliminated from the bush. Then all you would have would be the Multiflora or wild form, so to speak, of the rose.

Now this could conceivably happen in the case of Gladiolus or Hyacinth or even on Roses, but is a very rare occurrence and very often it doesn't happen as much as it has been reported.

Garden Gossip

Lowell Anderson, teacher at Darby, left his mother in charge of his flower garden while he took off by jet for a tour of Europe. The Andersons live between Whisler and Laurelville.

Lowell's sister, Harriet Anderson, had orders to keep out of his flower garden. Last year Harriet pulled up her brother's asters when he set her to the task of weeding his flowers.

Two ponds are being built on the Bill McGinnis farm near Whisler. The Radabaugh youngsters who live on the farm will have some real sport some of these days.

Christina Gildersleeve, Route 4, has a novel way of supporting her sweetpeas. She has stuck branches in the soil for the vines to climb. She says her sweetpeas are all red, a color not too common in sweetpeas.

Mrs. Marvin Hartman of Tarlton has a gazebo in her yard. We looked up the word in the dictionary and it is a "summerhouse affording a fine view." One of her daughters there are a wagon seats in it with springs to jostle you. It is screened, too.

ONE OF HER young friends told me that Mrs. Richard Todd-hunter, of Route 1, Kingston, always had beautiful flowers.

Mrs. Coit Doner, Kingston, Route 1, is planning on making a lot of grape jelly this year. The grape crop, as usual, is excellent.

The Doners are nursing along a tiny mimosa tree that they brought from Florida.

Mrs. Lloyd Petty, Route 1, Circleville, also has a tiny mimosa tree.

Mimosa trees do surprisingly well here in Pickaway County. During the 1958-1959 winter several mimosas were winter-killed. But what is even more surprising about this southern tree is that some of our mimosas even made it through that tough winter.

Mrs. Willard Wright of Tarlton had petunias planted in an enormous kettle and a very attractive sight it is we have been told.

Florence Fetherolf took home a start of goose-neck. We warned her it would take the place.

During her visit she remarked that her daughter - in - law said she loved things that spread. So we offered her a start of creeping Charlie but Mrs. Fetherolf was too smart to take any creeping Charlie.

Franklin McVicker, daylily hybridizer, has a wife who's actually just as interested as he is in daylilies. They took off for the hemerocallis show at Mansfield over the weekend.

When we visited the McVicker place both Emily and Full Rewa (the McVicker hybrids that are on the market) were in full bloom.

FULL REWARD looks like a big yellow anemone.

Mrs. McVicker says a scientist from the university was down to take some chromosome counts of several of the hybrids.

Speaking of the scientific approach my annual lupines kept getting smaller and yellower so I gave them a dose of aluminum sulphate that I happened to have around. To my surprise the lupines are greener and look as though they may pull through.

Writers are always saying that lupines need a slightly acid soil. The aluminum sulphate was supposed to make a pink hydrangea turn blue. As I recall the hydrangea expired before it bloomed so I had the aluminum sulphate left over.

Mrs. Schubert Measamer's plant boxes are most beautiful. It was too dark to see her garden while I was there but the plants bordering the patio were in excellent shape.

We never saw mid - summer gardens in better shape. It's the rains of course.

Herbert Cutright, Route 2, Chillicothe, is a veteran apple cider man. He used to live on the Jack son Pike so his neighbors will remember his cider. The Cut rights freeze their cider now.

Baby Snaps Make Fine Border Plant

One of the daintiest of annuals is the toadflax or miniature snapdragon. Also called baby snaps they actually do resemble tiny snapdragons.

They may be used as an edging plant for they grow only from six to eight inches high. There is one variety that comes 15 inches in height.

Linaria comes in different colors, pink, rose, white violet and yellow. Plants are bush and erect.

Mrs. Lloyd Petty, Route 4, Circleville planted a package of mixed old fashioned seeds in which were several varieties of linaria. She is so pleased with the daintiness and color of her plants that we'll miss our bet if she does not have baby snapdragons on her seed order next spring.

Half of all resin and turpentine produced in the United States comes from pine trees of Georgia.

Most Animals Don't Care for Black Leaf 40

Dogs, cats and rabbits, as cute as they may be, can certainly be a source of extreme nuisance to gardeners. No only are their stains and damage unsightly, but it can be destructive to your garden.

Straying dogs can be a constant source of damage if your garden becomes part of their route for their routine romps or if it is close at hand at a moment of utmost convenience. Gardeners who encourage birds to feed find cats doubly objectionable.

Rabbit damage becomes most acute when rabbits have trouble finding food. This generally happens during the late fall and winter.

New Fangled Pots Not Popular Here

Recently the subject of plants in fertilizer pots came up in a garden conversation.

It was the consensus of opinion that the new fangled pots were not 100 per cent satisfactory.

When plant, pot and all were plunged into the garden soil the did not do as well, one gardener reported, as when the plant was removed from the pot.

Others said they found that plants got a better start apparently when removed from the constricting pot.

OUR OWN experience coincided with that of the other gardeners. Plants in fertilizer pots seemed to get off to a slow start.

We would be interested in reports from still other gardeners. At least in theory the fertilizer pots ought to be an adjunct to easy gardening.

ter months but can also be severe in the event of a very dry summer.

IF YOU would like a humane yet effective answer to these problems simply spray flowers shrubs and trees with a dilute of nicotine sulphate (Black Leaf 40). This method utilizes the animal's sharp sense of smell to keep them away from trees, plants, or house corners. They will make a quick detour if you use this formula:

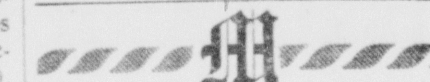

Mix two tablespoonsful of Black Leaf 40 in a gallon of water. Apply once every two weeks to shrubs, trees, flowers, corners of buildings. Be sure to renew after rain.

To protect evergreens, dip three or four pipe cleaners in Black Leaf 40 and curl the tops of the cleaners, cane-fashion, and hook them over low branches at the nose-level of the average dog.

Tree trunks can be effectively protected by wrapping a one-inch strip of cloth saturated with nicotine sulphate around it at the height of a dog's nose.

Once the nicotine sulphate is applied, nature takes her course and as soon as the animal sniffs it you'll find he will cooperate by detouring to more attractive playgrounds.

GE Topples C of C In 14-9 Slugfest

General Electric, champions of the Babe Ruth League first round, vaulted into first place in the second round with a 14-9 victory over a stubborn and capable Chamber of Commerce nine yesterday.

Both teams pounded the ball for a flurry of hits. GE zeroed in for 14 bingles and C of C laced the gate for 12. Scoring in the early innings proved to be the margin of victory for the Lamp Planters.

GE hurler Freddie Moore racked his third win without a loss as he went the distance. Jimmie Wells, relieved by Larry Smith in the first, suffered the defeat.

Errors by both teams played a part in the scoring. Chamber bobbled seven times and GE five.

EXCEPT in the first inning when he allowed four hits, Moore scattered the C of C bingles sufficiently. Several fielding gems also aided his cause, including a perfect throw home by leftfielder Jimmy Wood.

Smith, after taking over the mound for C of C in the first, clamped down to register 12 strikeouts, although he was touched for 11 hits.

Batting stars were numerous as Johnny Good and Moore both nicked the ball for four hits in five trips for the electricians. Teammate Gary Stewart sliced two singles in four tries.

Smith furnished plenty of plate power for the Chamber by bashing three singles in four times at bat. He scored three runs as did John Good of GE. Tom Huffines and Doug Kiser each went two for four.

GE moves ahead in the first inning with six runs on three hits, two errors and a walk. All the tallies were scored after two were out.

Granville Jones opened the gate with a double to left. An error, a hit batter and a walk followed. Moore then rifled a two bagger and Wood was safe on an error. Stewart's single brought home the last run of the inning.

CHAMBER came storming back in its half of the opening frame to score four times on four hits, a walk and two errors. Ronnie Seward walked. Mike Lovett singled. Bob Parker was safe on an error and Smith crashed a single. Jeff Jutz and Doug Kiser followed with one-baggers, but the rally ended when Stewart made a perfect throw home to catch a runner.

GE tallied two more in the second on successive singles by the Good brothers, John and Bob, a bobble of Bob Purcell's fly ball and a sharp single by Moore.

General Electric tallied four times in the fifth, the result of three singles and two errors. Wood and Stewart rapped back-to-back singles. Roger Roebuck and Jones were safe on errors and John Good cracked his third straight one-bagger.

The Chambermen retaliated in their half of the fifth for two runs on three hits, a walk and an error. Parker and Smith punched singles. Gary Betts walked and Tom Huffines uncorked a single bagger.

The winners scored one in the sixth on the strength of singles by Roebuck and Moore and another in the seventh on one-baggers by John Good and Moore.

Chamber fashioned a three-run rally in the seventh on Smith's third successive single, walks to Jerry Francis and Lutz and a bobble of Lovett's grounder.

GE moved into first place for the second round with a 3-0 mark, followed closely by Kiwanis with two wins and no losses.

DuPont and Ashville stand 1-1, Derby 0-2 and C of C 0-3.

Babe Ruth warfare resumes today when DuPont meets Kiwanis at 7:30 p. m. on the softball diamond.

A final practice for the team will be held 10:30 a. m. Thursday at the park softball diamond.

Managers for the All-Stars are Chet Iery, Emmitt Dade and Joe Adkins. They plan to round the squad out at 15 players.

Slated for second practices are John Good, Fred Moore, Granville Jones and David Bass of General Electric; Howard and Garold Dade, Wendell Lovett and Jack Cook of Kiwanis; Sonny Roof and Tom Rathburn of Ashville, Dick Kline, Arnie, Gabriel, Chet Iery, George Reeser and Tom Copland of DuPont; Larry Smith and Bob Parker of Chamber of Commerce and Flick, Brown and Warden of Derby.

Jaycees, Savings Bank Stage Rallies to Remain Undefeated

Savings Bank and the Jaycees staged late inning rallies to emerge victorious last night in Little League Minors actions.

The Jaycees, first round winners, tallied four runs in the fifth stanza to creep by steadily improving Rotary, 11-9. Savings Bank racked up seven runs in the fourth inning to down Third National Bank, 14-10.

Terry Hull gained credit for Banker win as he came in relief of starter Mike Young. Between the duo, they fanned seven and walked three.

Mark Lindsey went the route for Third National, whiffing two and issuing five free passes. Third National took a second inning, 10-6, lead behind the big bats of Dave Shauck, Mark Lindsey and Bruce Lindsey.

BUT SAVINGS iced the contest with the steady hitting of Robert Young, Hull, Robert Walisa, Tom Cassill, J. Hickey and Mike Young. Doubles for Third National were hit by Miller, Carl Hoffman and B. Lindsey. Triples were smacked by Stewart Skinner, B. Lindsey and Paul Shauck.

Bob Walisa had a double, the only extra base blow for Savings. Six errors damaged the Third National defense. Savings had 16 hits to Third National's 11.

Rotary jumped to a 7-0 first inning lead and maintained a margin until the fifth when the powerful and undefeated Jaycees rallied for victory No. 3 in the second round and 12th overall.

Ty Ankrom ran up his sixth straight win without a defeat, while Lynn Heath was the loser in relief. Ankrom fanned five and walked six. Heath, Don Hoffman and Bruce Tigner walked 10 and whiffed five.

Tom Toodle was the slugging star for the Jaycees. His two doubles accounted for two runs in the early innings, and his fifth inning triple iced the contest for the league leaders. Ankrom went 3 for 4 for the Jaycees.

ROTARY was held to five hits, but three were for extra bases as David Roy and Tigner had doubles and Frank Carter poled a triple. The Jaycees had nine base hits. Today's action finds four games on tap. At 5:15 p. m. Blue Ribbon

Dairy (0-2) meets Second National Bank (0-2) on the Southend Playground; the Jaycees (2-0) battle First National Bank (0-2) on the LL diamond, and Lincoln Plastic (0-2) faces Third National (1-2) on the softball diamond. DuPont (1-1) meets Kiwanis (2-0) at 7:30 p. m. on the softball diamond.

Tomorrow at 5:15 p. m. The Herald goes against Coca Cola on the Southend Playground; Ralston Purina battles Elks on the LL diamond, and Derby faces Chamber of Commerce on the softball diamond.

Monday's rained out contests will be replayed Saturday. Two games are at 8:30 a. m. They are the Elks vs. Coca Cola on the LL diamond and Circleville Oil vs. Ward's Market on the Southend Playground.

Two additional contests start at 10:30 a. m. They are Purina vs. the Herald on the LL diamond and First National Bank vs. Lincoln Plastic on the Southend playground.

PGA Golfers
Prep for Test

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — The biggest field in Professional Golfers Assn. history had a free ride coming today, a final practice round before the chips go down in the 42nd championship.

The free stroll gives the group of champions, ex-champions and hopefuls one last chance to find the answers to a flock of questions the revamped 7,165-yard par-70 Firestone Country Club course will ask in the $60,000 four-day 72-hole marathon starting Thursday and ending Sunday.

Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa., who would like to add this one to his National Open and Masters titles and the $9,000 top prize to his year's earnings of $66,603, may have found the answers Tuesday.

Arnie, who won the 1957 Rubber City Open over this same acreage but far from the same course, fired a torrid 35-31-66 Tuesday. Since his 1957 win the course has added 40 sand traps, two new greens, two lakes and some yardage and lost a stroke in par.

But Palmer, after a couple of probing practice rounds, went out Tuesday to give the new layout a real try. He three-putted the second hole for a bogey and the fourth for a double bogey and was three over par at the end of four, then he suddenly caught fire.

He birdied the fifth from 15 feet, the seventh from 3, the eighth from 20, the 10th from 20, the 11th from 10, the 12th from 7, and the 15th from 15 feet.

Asked why he didn't save the 66 for the tournament opener, confident Palmer grinned and answered, "I can do it again."

If he does he could run away with the tournament, for no one else has been burning up the course. Dow Finsterwald had a 64 for 17 holes but quit when a heavy rainstorm swept over the rolling tree-infested course. Bob Goalby had a 69 for the day's only other subpar performance.

The field going for the crown held by Bob Rosburg is a talent-laden one. Despite the withdrawal of former PGA kings Gene Sarazen, Johnny Revolta, and Paul Runyan, there are still 15 former winners along with seven ex-National Open champions competing for the big prize.

Grooms, River
Oil Notch Wins

Grooms TV and River Oil advanced in the District 8 Softball Tournament last night with narrow victories at Chillicothe.

Grooms downed Waverly, 3-1, and River Oil edged Sportsman Club of Hillsboro, 2-1. B. Smith racked up the win for Grooms, holding Waverly to five hits.

Moore absorbed the defeat. Grooms batted out five hits. Each team committed one error.

The Sportsman Club jumped to a 1-0 lead over River Oil on three of its five hits for the contest in the initial stanza. River Oil tallied one run in the fifth as winning pitcher, Rainey, smashed a home run.

Chillicothe plated the winning run in the seventh when Delong and Von Clausburg connected for the other two hits garnered by River Oil. Rockhold was the loser.

Roush, Blackwell
Honored by Reds

CINCINNATI (AP) — Eddie Roush and Ewell Blackwell, two of the Cincinnati Reds' all-time baseball greats, now are members of the team's own Hall of Fame. Roush played on Cincinnati's world championship team of 1919 as an outfielder. Blackwell once almost matched Johnny Vander Meer's feat of pitching two no-hit games in a row.

They were inducted into the Cincinnati Hall of Fame Tuesday night in ceremonies which preceded the Reds' 4-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Roush twice led the league in hitting. Blackwell won 15 straight in 1947.

Western Net Test
Favorites Advance

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP)—All the top-seeded players move into the fourth round today of the Western Junior and Boys Open Tennis Championships. The top-ranked racketeers survived third round play Tuesday. In the boys division (15 years and under) No. 1 seeded Mickey Schad of Louisville, Ky., defeated Randy Wertz of Toledo 6-0, 6-1. In the junior division (18 years and under), top-seeded Bill Lenoir of Tucson, Ariz., downed Bob Archer of Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, 6-3, 6-4.

Giants Rookie
Hurls 1-Hitter
On First Start

Phillie Pinch Single
In 8th Spoils No-Hit
Effort by Marichal

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Juan Marichal, 21, a rookie from the Dominican Republic, has become the first National League pitcher in modern days to pitch a one-hitter in his first big league start.

The 5-10 right-hander who was the strikeout king of the Pacific Coast League until he was recalled from Tacoma with an 11-5 record, had a perfect game for 6 1-3 innings Tuesday night for San Francisco. An error by Eddie Bressoud led the Phils' Tony Taylor reach base.

Marichal lost his no-hit bid when pinch hitter Clay Carlymple singled with two out in the eighth. The newcomer struck out 12, only three short of the record that the Dodgers' Karl Spooner set in his first start in 1954.

No other National League pitcher in modern days, since 1900, has thrown a one-hitter in his first start. Charles Jones of Cincinnati pitched a no-hitter in his major league debut in 1884. Two American Leaguers have broken in with one-hitters, Addie Joss of Cleveland and Mike Fomiele of Washington.

Milwaukee sliced Pittsburgh's league lead to 1 1/2 games by winning its sixth straight on a 9-5 decision over St. Louis, while Pittsburgh was losing to Los Angeles 5-4. Cincinnati whipped Chicago 4-1 behind Jim O'Toole in the other game.

Marichal's performance could be a tonic to the floundering Giants who have dropped into the second division. Mixing a change-up with curves and fast balls, he mowed down the first 19 Phils.

After Johnny Callison fled out, Marichal wild pitched and then issued his only walk to Pancho Herrera before Willie Mays pulled down Joe Morgan's long fly, ending the inning.

Dalrymple, batting for catcher Cal Neeman with two out in the eighth, hit Marichal's first pitch sharply to center field. The rookie wasn't bothered. He got the next man to end the eighth and retired the side in order in the ninth.

Norm Larker's two-run home run in the seventh gave Los Angeles a come-from-behind victory over the Pirates who led 4-0 going to the last of the sixth. Larker also had two singles, boosting his league-leading batting average to .359.

Milwaukee blew a three-run lead but took advantage of the shaky Cardinal defense to edge closer to the Pirates. Hank Aaron's 25th homer in the eighth was the clincher for relief man Ron Piche. Curt Flood, Stan Musial and Julian Javier homered for the Cards.

Frank Robinson hit two home runs in Cincinnati's victory over the Cubs, who have scored a total of only three runs in five games since the All-Star break.

The American League pennant race is a study in contrasts. While the New York Yankees bludgeoned the opposition with home runs, flexing their muscles to make up for faulty pitching, the Chicago White Sox play it cute with speed and tight pitching.

The Yanks maintained their two-game lead over the second-place White Sox by scoring five in the ninth to top Cleveland 13-11 Tuesday night. Chicago cashed in on Billy Pierce's four-hit pitching and a three-run inside home run by speedy Luis Apicrio for a 6-0 triumph over Boston.

GI Insurance Exempt from Creditors

Questions of interest to ex-servicemen should be given to Pickaway County Veterans Service Officer, Jim Shea. His office is in the basement of the Courthouse.

Q—When my husband passed away he left me his G. I. Insurance. He owed a few bills to private individuals at the time of his death, which I intend to pay. Meanwhile, do these creditors have any right to seize the G. I. Insurance policy to get their money right away?

A—They do not. The proceeds of your husband's G. I. Insurance are exempted by law from any insurance money may not be seized or attached to pay his debts.

Q—I am currently receiving a service connected disability compensation in the amount of $19 per month. Am I entitled to any more compensation because of dependents?

A—I am sorry, but you are not. Since you are receiving $19 per month, you only have a 10 per cent disability rating. Only those veterans rated at 50 per cent or more for service connected disabilities are entitled to an increase in their compensation for dependents.

Q—UNDER the new pension law, which went into effect on July 1st, is a veteran entitled to additional income because of his need for regular aid and attendance?

A—Definitely yes. A veteran rated in need of regular aid and attendance may be paid $70 per month over and above his pension payments determined according to his income.

Q—I converted my World War II G. I. Term Insurance to a Endowment Age 60 policy some years ago and am having difficulty in meeting the premiums. Is it possible for me to change back to term insurance until I'm better off financially?

A—This is not possible. You cannot switch from a permanent plan back to your term policy. You can, however, change to another permanent plan policy with a lower premium, such as an Ordinary Life policy. This is despite the wording on your policy which says no change is possible, as the law was recently modified.

Q—If I should add the total disability income rider to my World War II G. I. Insurance policy and become disabled, would the amount my beneficiaries receive from the policy in case of my death be reduced in any way?

A—None what so ever. Disability payments made under the rider in no way decrease payments made to beneficiaries of your G. I. Insurance policy.

New Cincy-Dayton Freeway Readied

CINCINNATI (AP)—Except for a 2.8 mile stretch at the north edge of Cincinnati the new multi-lane freeway from here to Dayton will be open for traffic July 31.

That is the word today from state highway officials.

The short uncompleted stretch will necessitate a 6 1/2 mile detour but officials said it would be in effect for only about two or three weeks.

The 34 - mile freeway, to be known as Interstate 75, will be the longest unbroken stretch of interstate highway in southwestern Ohio. There will be no traffic lights, stop signs or grade crossings and bypasses will connect with nearby towns.

U.S. Personal Income Climbs to Record Rate

WASHINGTON (AP)—Personal income of Americans climbed to a record rate of $405,750,000,000 a year last month. The increase was a billion dollars over May.

The Commerce Department reported Monday that total wage and salary payments rose by about 300 million dollars in June despite a decline in factory payrolls due to a slowdown in the steel and automotive industries.

Day of Scares

DEPOE BAY, Ore. (AP)— In one day, residents of this coastal town were jarred by these reports: A tidal wave was coming, mysterious red objects were at sea, and there was a submarine lying off the coast.

The red objects turned out to be fishing boats, the submarine turned out to be a tug and the tidal wave didn't turn out at all.
